

2024 Call for Presentations

We need your ideas!

To provide members and partners with a valuable suite of educational opportunities, we are seeking presentations that impact the authority industry. Submissions are reviewed by the Conference Committee and should be informational and/or educational only – commercial endorsements will not be considered. Your submission will be considered for the following:

Educational Opportunities

Presentations held in this successful forum allow for information exchange and professional networking opportunities.

Webinars

Webinars are presented throughout the year in a convenient format that reaches a wide audience of authority professionals and features a library of the webinars for multiple viewing opportunities.

Feature Articles

The Authority magazine, PMAA's premier magazine, circulated to more than 5000 authority board members, legislators, and decisionmakers, offers readers direct access to your expertise about complex issues facing authorities today.

Who can submit a presentation?

- Authorities with a project, program or case study that advances operations or increases efficiencies; and
- Associate members whose expertise supports industry advancement and information exchange.

Not submitting a presentation?

Take this opportunity to make suggestions about topics that interest you or guidance you need in authority operations or management. Your comments will help us better plan for educational opportunities in the future!

Thank you for your role in serving the interests of authorities!

Terri Hauser
PMAA Vice President &
Conference Committee Chair
