

“Authority Employee of the Year”

It's that time of year!

Nominations are now being accepted for an award recognizing an outstanding employee of a PMAA member authority.

Sponsored by ARRO Consulting, Inc., this award acknowledges the selected employee's service to their authority as well as their contribution to the community.

The “Authority Employee of the Year” will be honored at PMAA's banquet as part of the Annual Conference & Trade Show and will receive a monetary award ($750) to be donated to an institution of higher learning or nonprofit organization chosen by the awardee.

To nominate an employee, send a letter of approximately one hundred fifty (150) words, at least thirty (30) days prior to PMAA's Annual Conference. Attach any supporting documents. Nominations can be made by any active PMAA member.

A five-person selection committee that includes PMAA's president, a member of PMAA's board of directors, a PMAA staff member, the president and CEO of ARRO Consulting, Inc. and one ARRO employee, will review applicants for the final choice. A majority vote is required. The decision will be made on the stated purpose of this award: "contribution to community service, as well as service to their authority". The selection committee may decide not to present the award in a given year.
