

Mr. Nicely is a 1973 graduate of Penn State University with a BS in Civil Engineering. After graduation he was employed by a Pittsburgh Civil and Environmental Engineering firm where he specialized in finance and management.

He managed Hampton Township Municipal Authority for twelve years and the Richland Township Authority concurrently for four years. He's been the manager of the Fox Chapel Authority since 1994.

Mark is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineer's (ASCE), American Water Works Association (AWWA) where he served as Chairman of the PA Section in 2006, and currently serves as a Chair of the Management and Finance Committee.

Mark is also a member the Pennsylvania Municipal Authorities Association (PMAA), and current Chair of both the Professional Development Committee and the Pennsylvania Water/ Wastewater Agency Resource Network (PaWARN). Mark is a professional engineer in Pennsylvania and holds current water and wastewater operators licenses, as well as membership in the Waterworks Operators Association of Pennsylvania (WWOAP).

Mark and his wife Dolly reside in Allison Park. They have two sons, Matt and Eric, and three grandchildren, Matthew, Samantha and Zachary.