

Adams County is the home of the famous 'Mason-Dixon Line', the line between North and South during the Civil War. Gettysburg National Battlefield and National Military Park, where the Battle of Gettysburg was fought July 1-3, 1863 and where President Abraham Lincoln gave his famous Gettysburg Address on November 19, 1863. The County is also home to Dwight D. Eisenhower, the 34th President.

Region 4 is made up of Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Lancaster, Lebanon, Perry and York counties.

Dauphin County is home to the Broad Street Market, the nation's oldest continually operating market in the country. The Rockville Bridge is the longest stone masonry arch railroad bridge in the world with 48 majestic arches measuring 70 feet each that span the Susquehanna River.

The 15th President of the United States, James Buchanan, was born on April 23, 1791 in Lancaster County. Lancaster County's Central Market is the nation's oldest continuously operating farmers' market, dating back to 1731. Lancaster is America's oldest inland city and was the nation's capital for a day when the Continental Congress met downtown in 1777.

Lebanon County is home to the Union Canal Tunnel, the oldest transportation tunnel in the United States. It is also known for two tasty treats that are part of its local charm and culture: Lebanon bologna and opera fudge.

The Millersburg or Crow's Ferry, south of Liverpool, in Perry County, is the last operating ferry on the Susquehanna River.

The 2015 Little League World Series U.S. Champions, Red Land Little League, are from York County. The York Fair is "America's first fair," and was originally held in York City in 1765, 11 years before the nation was founded. For 9 months (late 1777 - mid-1778), York served as the Capital of the U.S. and is the birthplace of the Articles of Confederation; the name "The United States of America" was coined here as well. In 1940, the famous York Peppermint Pattie was created in York County.

Are you ready to get dirty? Since 1939, Williams Grove Speedway has some of the best dirt track racing in the country. Racing greats such as Ted Horn, A.J. Foyt, Tony Stewart, Kasey Kane and Mario Andretti have all raced at the "Grove".

